

OUTLINE OF THE COURSE

- Introduction
- PART I. THE COLLAPSE OF COMMUNISM AND ITS AFTERMATH
- PART II. A NEW GLOBAL ORDER?
- PART III. THE END OF THE END OF HISTORY
- PART IV. THE POLITICS OF INSECURITY
- PART V. WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

PART I - THE COLLAPSE OF COMMUNISM AND ITS AFTERMATH

- From Soviet Communism to Russian Gangster Capitalism
- A Unipolar World? NATO, the EU, & the Washington Consensus
- Fusing Capitalist Economics with Communist Politics: China and Vietnam
- The Resurgent Right in the West
- Reorienting the Left: New Democrats, New Labour, and Europe's Social Democrats
- Shifting Goalposts: The Anti-Tax Movement
- Privatizing Government I: Utilities, Eminent Domain, and Local Government
- Privatizing Government II: Prisons and the Military
- Money in Politics

PART II - A NEW GLOBAL ORDER?

- Democracy's Fourth Wave? South Africa, Northern Ireland, and the Middle East
- Business and Democratic Reform: A Case study of South Africa
- The International Criminal Court and the Responsibility to Protect
- 9/11 and the Global War on Terror

PART III - THE END OF THE END OF HISTORY

- Demise of the Neoconservative Dream: From Afghanistan to Iraq
- Denouement of Humanitarian Intervention
- Filling the void: China in Africa
- Political Limits of Business: The Israel-Palestine Case
- Crisis, Crash, and Response
- Fallout: The Housing Crisis and its Aftermath

PART IV- THE POLITICS OF INSECURITY

- Backlash: 2016 and Beyond
- Political sources of Populism: Misdiagnosing Democracy's Ills

PART V - WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

- Building blocks of distributive politics
- Unemployment, Reemployment, and Income Security
- Tough Nuts: Education and Health Insurance
- Agendas for Democratic Reform